Kilpatrick Stockton's New York Office Once Again Earns High Recognition from Chambers USA 2009 in Intellectual Property: Trademark and Copyright

NEW YORK (June 25) -- Chambers USA 2009: America's Leading Lawyers for Business announced recently that Kilpatrick Stockton's New York office is once again ranked as one of New York's top law firms in Intellectual Property: Trademark and Copyright. New York City office Partner Marc Lieberstein is also ranked as a leading attorney in this practice area.

The growing New York Trademark and Copyright team represents a number of nationally recognized brands in a range of industry sectors, including computer, entertainment, fashion and financial. "The 14-strong team currently focuses on trademark and copyright litigation, in addition to trade secret and false advertising issues; it is also active in portfolio and brand management, and other IP-related counseling." The New York office is led by office managing partner Georges Nahitchevansky.

"Marc Lieberstein practices IP litigation, licensing, counseling and prosecution in trademark, copyright and patent matters, including related e-commerce, domain name, trade secret and unfair competition issues." This is the second consecutive year for Mr. Lieberstein to be recognized by Chambers USA.
